

OCP Combat Ensemble

Whether you're in the air or on the ground, you want to be comfortable and protected to successfully complete your mission. That's why DRIFIRE developed a Combat System designed to deliver permanent FR protection while helping to regulate your skin's temperature across all types of environmental conditions. With patented DRIFIRE fiber technology and design features to maximize functionality, the DRIFIRE Combat Ensemble gives you Comfortable FR Wear in garments that can accommodate the rest of your gear, including body armor. Add to that antimicrobial odor control, and you have all you need to be safe, comfortable and ready to tackle whatever comes at you.
